

CONTENT

Introduction .....	4
Dita Rietuma. Centenary of Latvia Through the Eyes of a Child.....	6
Anneli Saro. Alternate Histories as Gateways to the Future .....	14
Hedi-Liis Toome. Theatre as Counter-History in Estonia: The Case of “BB at Night” .....	25
William Guynn. Luminous Ambush: Seizing the Historical Experience of Catastrophe Through Film .....	37
Zane Balčus. Ansis Epners’ film “Alive”: From Documentary to Fiction .....	54
Audrius Stonys. Cinematic Shift from the Front to the Background. Landscape in a Post Word Era .....	63
Jarmo Valkola. Documentary Discourse: Cognitive and Phenomenological Reflections on Matters of Remembering and Audio-visual Memory.....	70
Eva Näripea. Screening Space in Film Adaptations of Estonian Historical Fiction: “The Last Relic” (1969) and “Between Three Plagues” (1970) .....	81
Joe Kelleher. Taking the Actors Seriously: Michiel Vandevelde’s “Paradise Now (1968–2018)” .....	92
Matīss Gricmanis. True Dramaturgy vs. Fictional Autobiography .....	104
Jānis Kudinš. “Baņuta”, the First Opera in Latvian and its Libretto as a Historical Narrative in the Context of Staging History .....	110
Liisa Byckling. Michael Chekhov, Spirituality and Soviet Theatre .....	127